Petersbourg, May 30.

THIS Court has ſent Orders for ſtoring large Magazines at Riga and ſome other neighbouring Places, with Proviſions ſufficient for ſubſiſting an Army of 36000 Men during ſeven Months. Twenty four Battallions are marching from the other Side of the Country in twelve Columns of two Battalions each; the firſt of which will arrive the 4th of next Month in this Neighbourhood, where they are to be quartered or incamped, and will be followed regularly every Day by another Column till the 15th. Beſides theſe, it is ſaid the Troops already in Livonia, and thoſe which are to rendezvous at Plesko, will amount to 30 Battallions more.

Leghorn, June 2. A few Days ago a ſmall cruizing Veſſel of Tunis with 18 Men was forced into this Port by a ſtrong Gale of Weſterly Wind, but there being then in the Road the Dutch Ship of War the Theylinger, the Crew of the Corſair took Refuge on board that Man of War, and left their Veſſel to be driven aſhore by the Wind. On the 28th paſt ſeveral French Veſſels in Company ſailed from hence for Marſeilles, to prevent any Inſults that ſhould be offered them in their Voyage by the Corſairs of Tunis during the preſent Rupture between the Regency of Tunis and France. On the 30th a ſmall French Ship of War came in hither from Corſica, to take under her Convoy all ſuch French Veſſels as may be bound for the Two Sicilies and the Levant. On the 31ſt a Shock of an Earthquake was felt in this Place, to the great Terror of the Inhabitants, but without doing any Damage.
